HELEN HANDBURY 2008 LEADERSHIP AWARDS

The Helen Handbury Leadership Awards recognise Year 12 students in rural and regional Australia who have shown strong community leadership and initiative.

Australian secondary schools are invited to nominate Year 12 students for the Award. Nominations should include detailed information about the student's community leadership activities.

In 2008, the award winners will receive an international trip to experience community development in another culture.

Please send all submissions by 1 August 2008 to Dr Helen Sykes
