

Future Leaders and Melbourne Conversations invite you to join us on 14 January at 6.00pm

Art, Migration and Indigeneity: What Happens When Cultures Meet?

Speakers

Facilitator: Gerard Vaughan –
Director, National Gallery of Victoria

Jaynie Anderson - Convenor of the Conference and Herald Chair of Fine Arts, The University of Melbourne

Michael Brand - Director, J. Paul
Getty Museum, Los Angeles

Ronald de Leeuw - Director
General, Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam

Howard Morphy - Director
Research School of Humanities,
Australian National University

Ruth Phillips - Canada Research
Chair in Modern Culture and
Professor of Art History, Carleton
University, Ottawa

The 'Art History Olympics' come south of the equator for the first time since they began over 100 years ago. Australian and international art experts will explore the conference theme through a variety of art history case studies and reflections from Australia, Canada, Holland and America.

Venue: Melbourne Town Hall,
Cnr Collins &
Swanston Streets,
Melbourne

Date: Monday 14 January

Time: 6.00 – 8.00pm
(doors open 5.30pm)

Free event

This event is a free public component of "Crossing Cultures: Conflict, Migration and Convergence", the conference of the 32nd Congress of the International Committee of the History of Art.